Paul David Campbell, 62, passed away Wednesday, Oct. 29, 2008, at a local hospital. Graveside service: 11 a.m. Friday, Nov. 7, in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Paul was born in Fort Worth July 1, 1946. He was one of two children born to W.J. "Bill" Campbell and Audrey E. Campbell; his mother preceded him in death when he was 4. He graduated from the Masonic Home and School of Texas, then enlisted in the U.S. Navy when he was 18. He retired as a chief petty officer after 21 years of service.

He continued his education and received an associate degree in information technology. Later, he taught at ATI and was called by all who knew him "Professor." He was a member of the Arlington Heights Masonic Lodge 1184.

He was proud of his grandchildren and loved to tickle them and will forever be remembered in the hearts of his family and friends for his love of life and his humor that surrounded them all with laughter.

He was preceded in death by his baby sister, Eileen Campbell.

Survivors: Son, Robert William Campbell of Louisiana; daughters, Susan Ann McCormick of Granbury and Carol Helen Huntley of Azle; grandchildren, Kirsten Audrey and Jonathan Charles McCormick, Raymond Alexander Huntley, Sarah Grace and Jacob William Campbell; aunt, Helen Magnusson; cousins, Sandra Magnusson and Mike Campbell.
