Mary Carolyn Meadows Helms, 75, of Lumberton, North Carolina, passed away Saturday, January 4, 2013, at Southeastern Medical Center in Lumberton.

Born May 21, 1938, in Neola, West Virginia, she was the daughter of the late Dover Dewey Meadows and Anna Knapp Meadows and was a homemaker.

Carolyn Helms was the kind of Christian we should all strive to be. She was soft-spoken and never preached, but lived her life as an example. She raised four wonderful children while the Navy kept her husband at sea. She was the rock for her husband and children during all the tragedies that befell her family and always did it with dignity and grace. Carolyn can once again hold her beautiful granddaughter that she lost at only 12 years old and her precious grandson, lost at only 3. She is survived by her husband of 57 years, the Rev. J.B. Helms Jr.; two sons, Brice Helms and wife Hilda of Princeton, North Carolina, and David Helms of Aberdeen, North Carolina; daughters Rev. Wanda Lancaster and husband Robert of Stokesdale, North Carolina, and Donna Schwabe of Magnolia, North Carolina; brother John Wesley Meadows of Key West, Florida; ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Monday January 6, at Magnolia United Methodist Church with Rev. Paul Stallworth and Rev. Wanda Lancaster officiating. Burial will follow in the Concord Baptist Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from noon until 1:30 p.m. at Magnolia United Methodist Church prior to the funeral service.
