

Joseph D. Gorsky
MM3(SS) Blue 1966-1969
DOB: Nov 9, 1948
Eternal Patrol: May 1, 2007

Joseph D. Gorsky, 58, of East Bloomfield St., died Tuesday, May 1, 2007 while hunting, a sport he loved to do.

Born November 9, 1948 in Rome, he was a son of Chester and Betty DelVecchio Gorsky.

Joseph graduated from Holland Patent Central School in the class of 1967 and later attended SUNY Morrisville.

He served in the Submarine service for the US Navy from 1967 to 1971.

Joseph had been a mechanic for many years and was currently employed, for the last thirty-four years, as a truck driver for Rite Aid Distribution Center, where he was number one in seniority. He belonged to the Teamsters Union #182.

Joseph is survived by his loving companion, Judy Davis; mother and step father, Betty and Al DiNigro, Utica; two sons, Lonn Gorsky and Andrew Gorsky, both of Floyd; Judy's son, Christopher, Rome; four sisters, Barbara, Debbie, Robin and Tina; and a brother, Chester Gorsky. He had a special bond with all his grandchildren who lovingly called him "Papa Joe." The seven grandchildren are Daniel, Keely, Jacob, Carissa, Kayla, Tyler and Ryan.

He was predeceased by his father, a son, Joseph, and Judy's son, Steven.

Grave side services will be held in Floyd Cemetery. There are no calling hours.
Arrangements by Strong and Burns Funeral Home. Rome Daily Sentinel, May 3, 2007

